

Model : VPP-MUSA

Model : APP

Model : AWB

Besat wallboxes are designed for mounting on indoor studio walls. They are made of steel material and are equipped with various types of connectors. Reliable communication of signals between studio and control room are achieved with our Wallbox. They are made in a modular format and have a standard 19" size, but are variable sizes and connector types based on customer order.